Happy Thanksgiving

Archived 11/26

Dear Friend,

As we gather with family and friends this Thanksgiving, let us count our blessings of freedom and give thanks for everything that makes America exceptional.

Congressman Gosar visited Praise Chapel Food for Families to hand out turkeys for the holiday.

As we celebrate at home with friends, family and loved ones, I ask that you please keep the brave members of our armed services, who are unable to be with their families on this special day, in your thoughts and prayers. Though our freedoms and liberties are endowed by our Creator, they are most certainly preserved by the service and sacrifice of our men and women in uniform.

I wish you a Happy Thanksgiving.

Your Help is Needed to Get Economy Going: Small Business Saturday

While many of you may be willing to wait in line on Black Friday, please do not forget the easier shopping option is Small Business Saturday on November 24th.

Arizona's small businesses are truly the backbone of our communities and the strength of our economy. We have many choices of where to shop for gifts for our loved ones, but this season I encourage you to shop small and buy local where possible.

If you are a small business owner, this an excellent time to grow your business' online outreach. With eNewsletter sign-ups and special social media offers, your online marketing can increase its reach significantly this Holiday Season.

I ask that you please share your shopping photos with me by posting them on Facebook and tagging me in them.

As always, you can follow everything I am working on in Arizona and Washington, D.C. through my website (<http://gosar.house.gov>) on Twitter @repgosar, or through Facebook at Representative Paul Gosar.

Sincerely,

Paul A. Gosar, D.D.S.
Member of Congress
