Budget? What Budget?

Dear Friend,

On Monday, President Obama again missed the deadline for sending a budget to Congress. The Budget Act requires that the President submit a budget by the first Monday in February, yet this is the fourth time in five years the President has ignored the law and not acted.

President Obama remarked in the 2010 State of the Union, "like any cash-strapped family, we will work within a budget to invest in what we need and sacrifice what we don't." We recently passed the $16.5 trillion mark in national debt. Just as businesses and families work within a budget, it is time for the federal government do the same. Do you believe President Obama has shown failed leadership for missing the budget deadline?
