

I have been fighting Obama's executive amnesty orders since they were first introduced and this past week was a monumental step in our quest to block the president's unlawful overreach on immigration.

The Supreme Court affirmed the Court of Appeals decision, leaving in place Judge Andrew Hanen's injunction that will prevent President Obama's unconstitutional November 2014 executive amnesty orders from taking effect during the remainder of his presidency.

Judge Hanen's injunction stems from a lawsuit led by Texas Governor Greg Abbott and 25 other states, including Arizona, which argues President Obama did not have legal authority when he bypassed Congress and took executive action in November of 2014 to expand the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program and create the Deferred Action for Parents of Americans and Lawful Permanent Residents (DAPA) program.

This Supreme Court decision is a win for our Constitution and the American people. Article I, Section 8, Clause 4 of the Constitution grants Congress clear jurisdiction with regard to U.S. citizenship and immigration matters...not the president.

While this fight is not over, Thursday's decision sends a strong message that the Rule of Law is alive in America and that President Obama cannot circumvent Congress in order to implement his lawless amnesty agenda. Furthermore, the 4-4 split by the Supreme Court underscores the critical importance of electing a president that will appoint a Supreme Court justice that upholds the Constitution and preserves our nation's system of separated powers. That justice will likely determine the final outcome in this case. Click HERE to read more.

THE FIGHT TO KEEP LAKE HAVASU OPEN IS NOT OVER

On June 16th, the citizens of Lake Havasu City scored a critical victory in the fight to keep Lake Havasu open for all users.

While I am pleased that the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service scrapped its latest boating restrictions proposal for Lake Havasu, there is something critically important that the agency forgot. If the Service was truly interested in working with the community and other stakeholders, it would reopen the "Ryde Spot" which was unlawfully closed to motorized boating activities in May of 2015.

These restrictions were not based on science or merit and are what originally kicked off the whole controversy between the Service and the Lake Havasu community.

I will not give up the fight to keep Lake Havasu open for all users and this past week I demanded once again that the Service reopen the "Ryde Spot." Click HERE to learn more.

RADICAL ISLAM, NOT GUNS, RESPONSIBLE FOR ORLANDO ATTACK

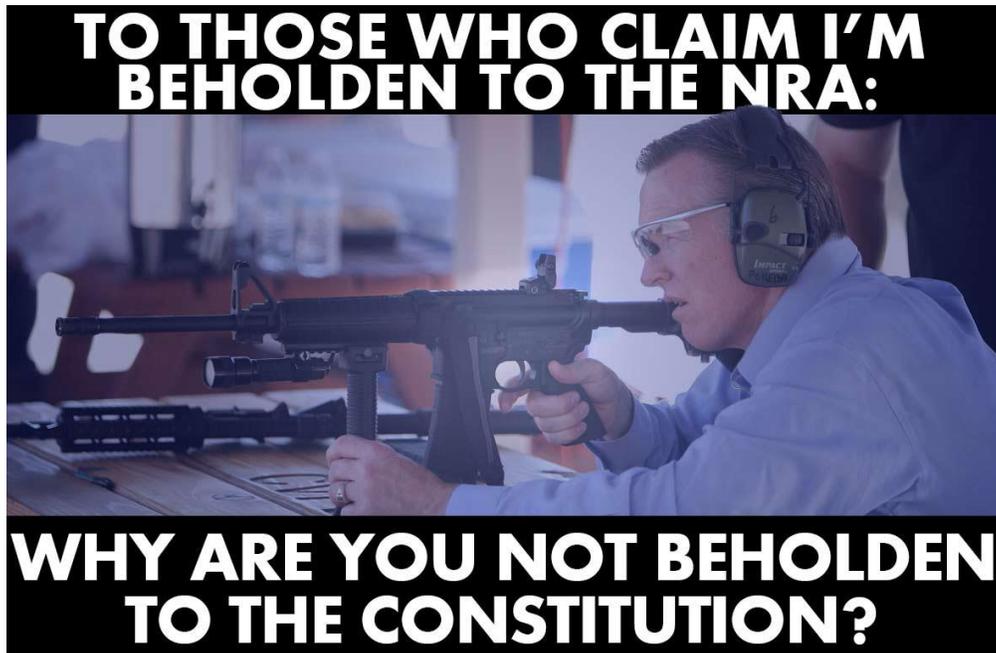

Following the horrific Orlando terrorist attack, Democrats in Congress continue to try and distract the American people from the truth: President Obama and his allies have utterly failed to stop ISIS and keep the homeland safe.

Shamefully, they are attacking law-abiding citizens and groups like the NRA instead of radical Islam. They claim Republicans, like me, are beholden to the NRA.

Here is what they don't want you to know: the NRA is not some secret political organization. The NRA is made up of more than 5 million Americans who believe in our God-given right to defend ourselves, our families, and our country.

These 5 million Americans are not beholden to anyone. They freely choose to support the NRA, the Bill of Rights and elected leaders who won't cave to knee-jerk, misguided attempts to strip away our Second Amendment. I will never support any laws that take away Constitutional rights from the American people.

This week, I was proud to sign my name to the FreedomWorks Pro-Growth Pledge. This pledge aligns with my track record and my philosophy. Smaller government. More personal freedom. Free markets in health care and other markets. I have been fighting for all of these worthy goals and I'm proud to call FreedomWorks an important ally in building pro-growth solutions for hardworking Arizonans. Learn more by clicking HERE.

FreedomWorks PRO-GROWTH PLEDGE

On Wednesday, I participated in the 10th annual “Hold Their Feet to the Fire” Radio Row hosted by the Federation for American Immigration Reform (FAIR) in Washington D.C. "The event draws dozens of radio talk hosts from across the country who broadcast their shows live while interviewing members of Congress, law enforcement, experts and those adversely impacted by unsecured borders and illegal immigration."

I had a great conversation with Garret Lewis of KNST 790 AM discussing my legislative efforts to defund Obama's executive amnesty.

I made my debut on the national award winning podcast, "Behind Enemy Lines" with Gene Berardelli and Russ Gallo out of New York City.
